British Columbia Nurses' Union	Also, ongoing this year is the continuing promotion of a scent-free environment. I cannot emphasize enough how serious this issue is. I have seen people confined to the point where they cannot leave their homes. Scented products have been blamed for adverse health reactions, some of which include headaches, respiratory problems, nausea, difficulty with concentration and skin irritations. www.bcnu.org/an-interview-with-workers-with-disabilities
