Below are some resources for scent-free products

There are many, scent-free alternatives available in major grocery chains, health food stores and drug stores carry an assortment of these products at comparable prices to the scented versions. Often, your favourite brand-name product will come in a scent-free version as well.

Note: 'Fragrance-Free' labels are preferable to 'unscented ' or 'scent-free' ones. Some unscented products contain scents and masking agents are used to hide the scent. However, the chemicals are still present and can harm some people. The following URLs could guide you. Remember to read labels.
